WIGILIA

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 2017

6:30 p.m.

(A Detailed Flyer will be Sent)

Location: Dining Room

Polish National Home

60 Charter Oak Avenue, Hartford

Our holiday season culminates with the beautiful Wigilia (Vigil Supper) event on December 15. Please invite family members and friends to join us in celebrating this very special Polish Christmas tradition when everyone is "family." In keeping with the custom of setting an extra place at the table for a wayward traveler or lonely stranger, why not consider hosting someone who would not ordinarily attend. The sharing of the Oplatek, dining on a traditional meatless meal, and the singing of kolędy will no doubt add immeasurably to their and your own holiday spirit. A separate flyer providing further details and reservation information will be mailed or e-mailed before the end of November.

Please note that the deadline for reservations will be one week before the event — Friday, December 8.

SZOPKA COMPETITION

Heartfelt thanks to Marek Czarnecki, Chair of this year's Szopka Competition, who has visited several local schools to educate students about the history of Szopka making and to inspire them to create a Szopka for our competition on November 26. Thanks also to Carol Oleasz for her long-time commitment and who continues to encourage students to produce beautiful entries. Both individuals have devoted a great deal of time and energy to these endeavors over many years. Following judging on Saturday, November 25, cash prizes will be awarded on Sunday, the 26th, at 2:30 p.m.

SZOPKA COLORING PAGE

We invite the younger children who wish to participate in the beautiful tradition of szopka-making to color in the Szopka Coloring Page that is included in this newsletter or downloaded from our Club website: www.polishculturalclub.org. Please bring completed entries to the Szopka Festival on Sunday, November 26 at the Polish National Home. Children may also color in the page at a special table that day. This is a great introduction to a unique and meaningful Polish Christmas custom.

DO YOU KNOW . . . THE STORY OF “A PILLOW FOR BABY JESUS?”

Long ago in Poland – in ancient Kraków – there lived an old widow named Helena. On the morning of Christmas Eve she went to the Dominican Church to watch the priests put up the Christmas crèche. She saw Father Jacek lay the beautiful statue in the manger and she noticed that the Baby Jesus had no pillow. She told the priest that Baby Jesus should have a pillow because the hay was too scratchy. But Father Jacek said the monastery had no money for a pillow and that the Holy Family was very poor and that is most likely the way Mary placed the little Baby Jesus. All Helena could say was “I don’t think so!”

When Helena went home, all she could think about was Baby Jesus lying on that scratchy and rough hay. The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. “What does Father Jacek know about how a mother would prepare for a baby?” she said to herself. “Of course Mary had a pillow for the Baby Jesus!”

She decided that she had to make supper and got out the fixings to make homemade kluski (noodles) with cabbage. But as she was rolling out the dough, she became angrier and angrier that the poor Baby Jesus had no pillow, and her kluski got bigger and bigger until she realized that she wasn’t really making the delicate noodles she had planned. Then she had an idea: she would make little pillows from the dough and stuff them with cabbage. After she had done that, she decided that maybe if she stuffed the pillows with blueberries they would be softer and have a wonderful fragrance of summer, so she made some little pillows stuffed with blueberries. And then she thought: “If I stuffed the pillows with cheese, they would be ever so soft!” And so she stuffed some of her little pillows with cheese.

After she had boiled all her little pillows, she took them to the Dominican Church for Baby Jesus. Father Jacek was praying at the crèche and when he saw the little pillows he became very excited. “Oh, thank you so much,” said Father Jacek. “Here it is Christmas Eve and the monks have nothing for supper. How kind of you to think of us!”

Well, what could Helena say? She gave the little pillows to Father Jacek, thankful that she could help the poor monks who had given all their own food to the poor, but so sad that the Baby Jesus still had no pillow. She looked at the beautiful little statue and through her tears she was sure that she saw the Baby Jesus smile and give her a little wink. She knew that she had given the Baby Jesus a pillow after all – a soft and beautiful pillow – her heart filled with love and charity.

Nobody remembers Helena today, even though she invented the little pillows that we call pierogi that everyone has at their Christmas Eve dinner. Father Jacek, on the other hand, later became the famous Św. Jacek (St. Hyacinth in English), one of the patron saints of Poland and interestingly enough, the patron saint of pierogi makers (as if it were his idea!).

The moral to this story is that all of us are called to prepare the way for Jesus, not with a soft pillow but with a soft heart to comfort those who are lonely or sad, to take the time for someone who just needs to talk, to have compassion and patience for those who just need our time. These are the presents that we can prepare for the Baby Jesus. Like Helena, our charity and kindness will make Him smile!

OUR POLISH TRADITIONS — FORETELLING THE FUTURE ON WIGILIA

Old customs connected with Christmas have flourished for years in Polish villages — and some of them have made their way into the cities and into the 21st century. Since Wigilia is such an important day of the year for Poles, many of the things that happened on this day were considered to be portents for the coming year. Here are a few.

- ◆ Decorations for the Christmas tree should include apples for beauty and health, ornaments made out of straw for wealth, nuts for happiness and love.
- ◆ Christmas Eve supper has to have twelve different dishes for each month of the year to ensure a prosperous year. And every Wigilia dish has to be tasted; if not, this would bring bad luck and a bad harvest.
- ◆ You have to have candles on the table. Each person has to see their shadow on the wall; a lack of a shadow means death in the coming year.
- ◆ When sitting down to supper, blow on your chair so you don’t sit on a ghost that has come to join you for Wigilia.
- ◆ After Wigilia, animals were fed leftovers and given a piece of the opłatek wafer to ensure their health and fine offspring.
- ◆ By the end of the supper, you should eat an apple and count the seeds: an even number foretells great love, and more than six seeds means a wedding is guaranteed.
- ◆ Unmarried girls should place a piece of fish on the floor and then let the dog into the room. The girl whose piece is eaten first is the girl who gets married first.
- ◆ Place a piece of iron under the Christmas Eve table for everyone to touch to make sure their legs are strong and healthy.
