G. ESSAY (no more than 400 words): This year marks the 200th anniversary of the death of Tadeusz Kościuszko (1746-1817) – military engineer, military leader, and proponent of human rights. Kościuszko is considered a national hero in the United States. What lessons can be learned from this native Pole whose character and beliefs gave rise to activism in a nation far from his homeland? Why should he be remembered by all Americans?

The Jennie Marconi-Javorski Scholarship Award will consist of a $1,000 check payable to the institution where the applicant will continue his/her studies. The official presentation of the scholarship award will take place at the General Membership Meeting of the PCCGH in June, 2017. Applicants are required to submit a fully completed Application Form, including all requested materials, that must be postmarked no later than May 1, 2017 and mailed to:

Ms. Virginia Pudlo, 33 Worthington Road, Glastonbury, CT 06033-1372.
